

Do you like organising events and visiting different pubs, clubs, breweries and beer festivals?

You could help local CAMRA members enjoy themselves as their Social Secretary.

The role involves

- Finding out what members would like to do and booking venues for social meetings for your branch e.g. pub tours, brewery visits and beer festivals.
- Organising transport and accommodation where necessary.
- Liaising with social secretaries in other branches on holding joint events and to share ideas.
- Publicising your events in What's Brewing, the branch Newsletter, on social media and the branch website.

Useful skills and knowledge

- Good organisational, interpersonal and writing skills.
- Access to a computer/tablet, the internet and social media.
- Knowledge of your local pubs, breweries and festivals.

Time commitment

- Besides attending branch meetings to discuss and plan social activities, you might spend one or two hours a month plus additional time visiting venues and enjoying the events you have arranged.

Information and support

- Useful information for social secretaries is in the Branch Social Secretaries' Hub.
- Information to help you plan events is available from WhatPub, the Good Beer Guide, local pub guides and branch websites.
- You can also find publicity information in the Volunteers' Area of the website.
