Notes:	The bridleway can be very muddy at some times of year. For part of the route there is a path (not a right of way) to the east of the bridleway which is used by many walkers. This route is not only much less muddy, but it also affords a better view of the surrounding area than is possible from the hedge-lined bridleway.

The Route:

(Starting at Keston)

- Walk down Fox Lane (next to the Fox pub) to junction with Jackass Lane, then take footpath to Nash
- Path briefly joins Nash Lane then take path adjacent to riding stable (following Bromley Council's Nash Circular route) to Jackass Lane
- Follow Jackass Lane to Blackness Lane and then take the bridleway (following Bromley Council's Leaves Green Circular route) and then across field up to Leaves Green

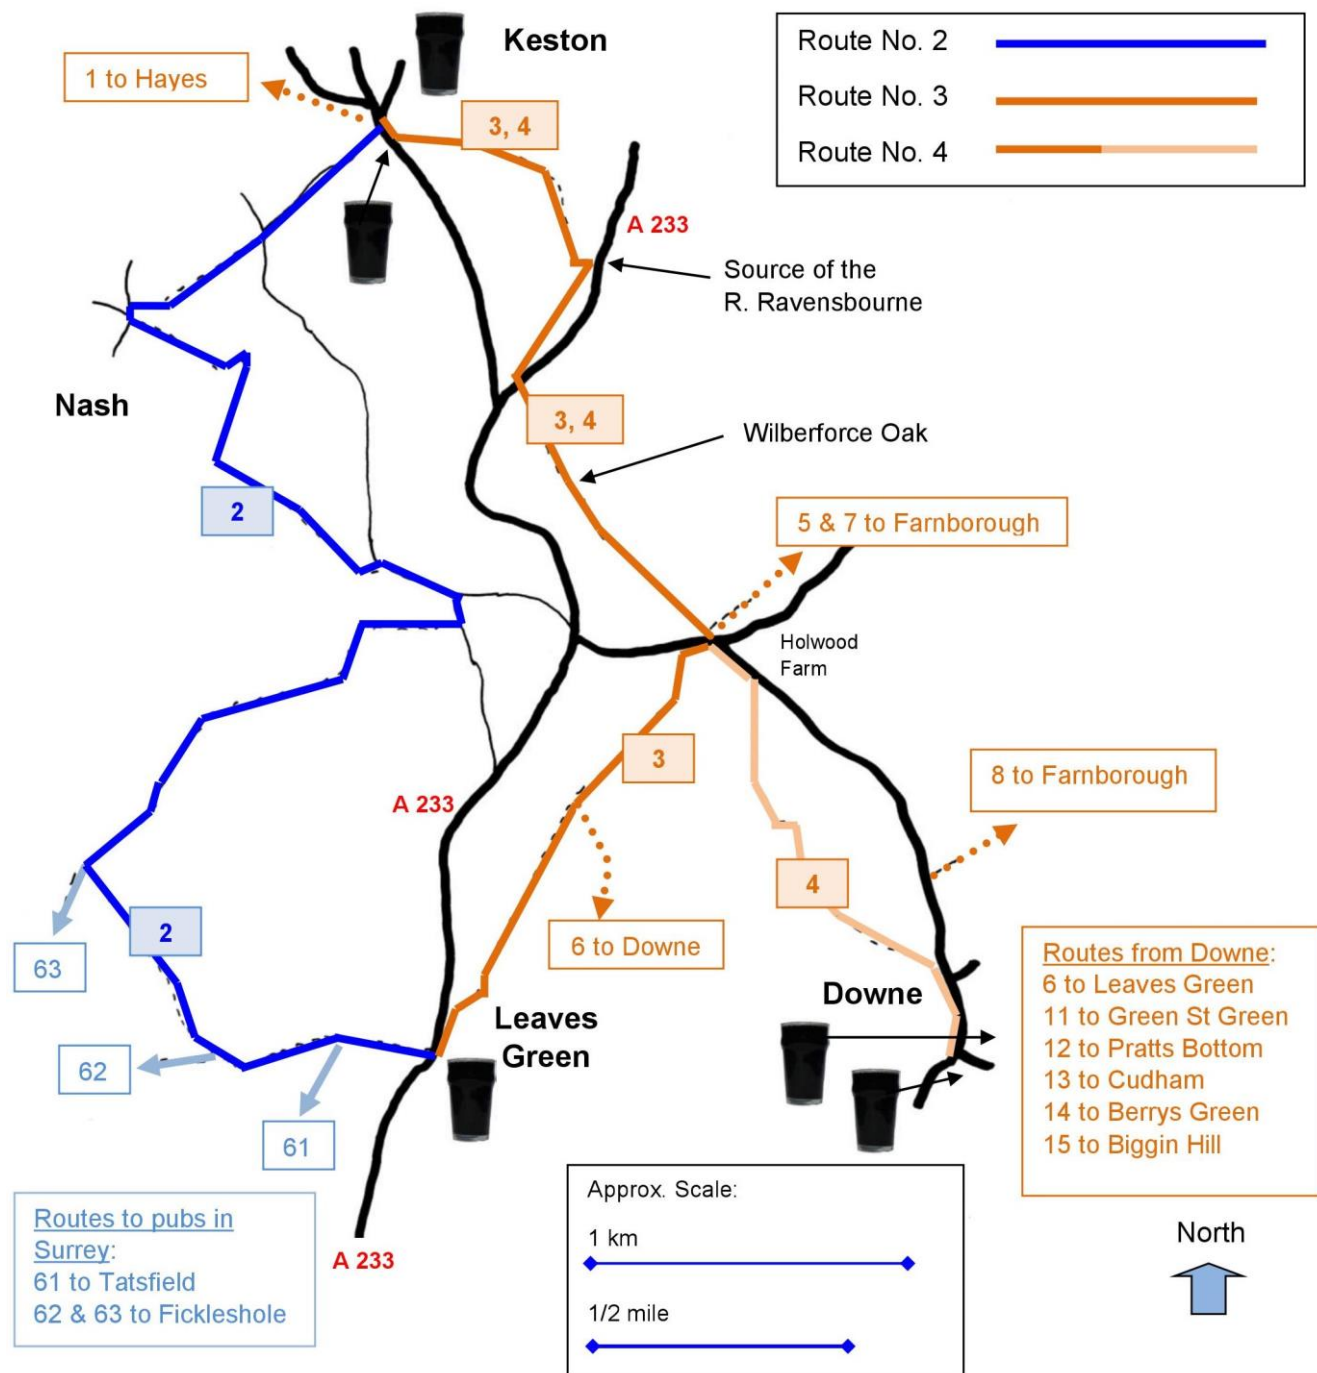

(Starting at Leaves Green)

- The route starts in the track off the A233 opposite the Kings Arms

Date of survey / updates
 - Surveyed June 2019
